There is an article about the firm, its business and its services. They also offer help in case any customer is interested in any of its products. If you have any queries, you can contact them using their chat. They offer a lifetime service for each product. The company is thus a well-known name in the world of computers. Having said this, you should know more about the company and their products because they offer a wide selection of products.

History The company was established as Videocraft on 13 December 2008. The new company was situated in London. The owners of the company were the entrepreneur Patrick Dewailly and Marco De Vient. The company offered its first products which were manuals, tutorials and other useful resources for popular software products. After a few years, the owners decided to develop and publish their own software products and they were named after Videocraft. For the first time in the history of the company, they released the first crack for the Total Video Converter on 14 February 2012. Many months have passed and in September they released the first version of total video converter. In November, they developed a totally different software product called Total Video Converter, this product was a converter for downloads in which all the latest software could be downloaded. After the launch, they decided to give another name to it and they named it Total Video Converter. Their choice was because it helped users with video downloads. The problems that happen to people while video downloading was a major issue that they wanted to solve. Having said this, a wide selection of new features was designed for this product. It was very good at splitting a video in multiple formats. Another feature that was added was the ability to download multiple videos at once. In addition, the company made sure that the video was downloaded with a great quality.

After its launch, the video conversion also became easier because it offered a lot of features. In July 2012, the company launched their new version of the video converter. The new video converter offered improved functionality with many new features. Some of the new features were as follows. The company also added a new converter called video download accelerator. It was designed to increase the speed of the video download. They made sure that the video was downloaded with a good quality. Another new feature was that it could transfer videos in the folders. In the end, they also offered the video download software for the PC. They also launched the new version of the Videocraft converter which was an upgrade from the previous version 3e33713323
