News Sector and buyers grow confident of holiday market European holidaymakers and sellers have retained a cautiously optimistic outlook for the European tourism and hospitality sectors after figures for April showed there was a slight decline in visitor numbers and a slight increase in hotel room supply in the eurozone. The figures from both the International Air Transport Association (IATA) and the European Commission still show that overall tourism in the eurozone was flat in April, at 7,783,290 overnight stays, but the number of travellers grew to 4,803,533, which is just one per cent below the 2011 level. However, the turnover of €85,040m was 20.5 per cent above the April 2011 figure of €73,790,000. The latest figures from the European Commission show that there were 114,
